Internexus San Diego

bringing the world together
since 1978

As Director of Internexus San Diego, my job is to work closely with our school campus directors and teachers to provide students with outstanding English instruction. Learning English as a second language is an extended journey.

At Internexus San Diego, we work hard to make your experience pleasurable and productive. We want to know your goals and learning style (in and out of the classroom). This way we can plan the best course of study for you. Internexus San Diego instructors are passionate about teaching. They design creative lessons, filled with stimulating activities. You'll notice improvement in your English skills right away!

It is my sincere hope that you will consider studying with us at Internexus San Diego.
